APPROACHING ZETA

01 The safest direction from which to approach Cauldron ZETA is through the Scrapper Site to the southwest. The direct path from the main road is guarded by three Stalkers and is occasionally used by Shell-Walker and Behemoth Convoys, which can cause battles to get out of hand very quickly if you haven't completed Cauldron XI. If you have the XI Overrides you may take the direct approach to the Cauldron entrance from the south, then simply hide in the tall grass at Position A, draw the Stalkers to you one by one with Lure Call, Override them and climb the rock formation at Position B [→□ 1]. Otherwise, approach through the Scrapper Site and slide down the rock face to the ledge at Position C – this grants access to the hidden entrance at Position D with only a Redeye Watcher blocking your way.

THE PATH DOWN

02 Eliminate the Watcher, descend into the shaft and Override the door into Cauldron ZETA. Proceed through the conduit, drop into a cavern at the end and follow the left wall, looting the three Supply Crates along the way [→□ 2]. When you reach the third Supply Crate, turn left and continue west. Loot the Supply Crate sitting out in the open, then face south and loot another Supply Crate tucked away in the corner. Drop into the pit to the west, enter the hatchway and rappel down into the Core chamber at the other end. Pick off the two Watchers patrolling the fabrication platform, loot the Supply Crates scattered around the perimeter of the room, and begin making your battle preparations.
